*2003
Knight Family Calendar*

Our twelfth annual Knight family calendar is a collection of photos of some of the places we live, our castles, and our kingdoms. Just for the fun of letting you guess a little, where you don't recognize a location, we've not captioned the photos. You will find "Keys to the Kingdom" identifying the various places.

Again this year, I wish all of my great, extended family and friends a magical and joyful Christmas, and a fulfilling 2003. May all of our castles have the drawbridge down and the welcome mat out.

Love,

Gerrit / Mom / Grandma / Gigi

December

Despite the glitter of the strip and downtown, folks drive from miles around to see the beautiful Christmas displays at the castle of Maureen and Stuart MacMillan and their neighbors in their Las Vegas cul de sac.
