

Kids Only!

The 2020 Knight Family Calendar

Notes on our Kids Only Calendar

My enthusiasm for this year's theme was matched by yours. You sent me well over 200 photos and, although I added extra pages, I couldn't use them all. But I did try to be sure everyone I received pictures of is included at least once.

With all your great photographs, the calendar is in full color this year. I used a printer that has refillable ink tanks, saving the expense of cartridges – but be careful not to get the pages wet unless you're into watercolor abstractions.

I have identified you throughout the pages by the name I called you when you were a child (the nice one.) Hence Nick is Nicky, Rebecca is Becky, and Judson is Jud. If I didn't know you in your childhood, you're spared. And, because we're family, this calendar is on a first name basis.

Designing the cover was fun. First, I composed one with a colorful photo (which is now on the April page) of Barbara, Charlie and Nicky. It was a perfect. Then I remembered a grainy old snapshot of one of my brothers climbing the picket fence in our yard at 718 Spruce. Maybe it's Jimmy, maybe it's Mickey Don. We're not sure, and even Mom marked it as a "guess who." It's on the cover because it captures the essence of being a child that I envisioned for this edition.

On this page I unabashedly placed a photo of Janvi, one of my two delightful bonus granddaughters. Find me a grownup who can make eyes like that.

This is the 29th annual family calendar. I have told myself in past years I would stop at twenty and then twenty-five. But I haven't, because they're so much fun to do, and I know they're appreciated because of how you always participate, especially this time. So, will number thirty in 2021 be the last? I don't think so.

And I don't even have to say "I hope" you enjoy this one. You will.

With love for you all,

Denny
